

Bowl for Breath

The Cystic Fibrosis Foundation recently hosted its fourth annual Bowl for Breath event at Bowlmor Lanes in Dunwoody. Bowl for Breath is a team bowling and fundraising competition presented by the H&H Army to raise funds for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. H&H Army began 10 years ago to help control, cure and conquer cystic fibrosis in honor of Will and Ann Shearer's two children, Helen, 9, and Hayes, 6, who have the disease. Close to 300 soldiers joined together once again in an effort to support the foundation, and the event raised $125,000. In the last 10 years, H&H Army has raised $675,000 and they will not stop until CF stands for Cure Found. Information: www.cff.org. Above Left: From left, Hayes, 7, Helen, 10, and Brown Shearer, 12, children of Ann and Will Shearer. The H&H Army was founded for and named after Hayes and Helen, who each have cystic fibrosis. Above Right: From left, Claire Gordon, Eileen Gordon, Shannon Cofield and Tamara Schmidly shop for eNewton Designs jewelry, which raised $10,000 for the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Below Left: From left, Michael, Rebecca, Margaret and Michael Hollingsworth with Hill, Katie and Brooks Mauldin. Below Right: From left, Julie, Smith and Charlie Harlan.

Special / Clay Calhoun Photography

Financial forecast

The Atlanta Society of Finance and Investment Professionals last week hosted its Meeting with Media on Forecast and ASFIP Media Sourcebook event at the Buckhead Club. It included a forecast survey for the 2016 economy. Information: www.asfip.org. Above Left: Matt Toms, managing director of Voya Investment Management, speaks about the 2016 financial forecast. Above Right: Ernie Dawal, SunTrust Banks' chief investment officer of wealth and investment management, talks about the 2016 financial forecast. Dawal said based on studies he has read, he see no evidence of a recession coming in 2016 unless a Black Swan event occurs.

Staff / Erin Gray Cantrell

Right: Stephen Davenport, president of the Atlanta Society of Finance and Investment Professionals, was both a speaker and a Q&A moderator at the event.

Staff / Erin Gray Cantrell